Dear All, You will all have noticed that the altar frontals are now green. From Christmas to the Baptism of the Lord the colour was white; during Advent the altars had purple frontals. During this time before the start of Lent we're back in Ordinary Time. This is not the name of a special season but it's a time when our attention turns to Jesus' ministry. This year the gospel reading on most Sundays will be from St Matthew, although today's gospel is from John. We're urged during these Sundays to listen to Jesus' teaching and walk with him as we accompany him on his journey to Calvary. On this first Sunday after the Baptism of the Lord we encounter the witness of John the Baptist with those familiar words, 'Behold the Lamb of God.' On the Third Sunday Jesus calls his first disciples; his message is clear but challenging, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' On the fourth, fifth and sixth Sundays the gospel is from the Sermon of Mount: The Beatitudes, Salt of the Earth and Light of the World, and A New Law in Continuity with the Old. Matthew's Gospel underlines his conviction that the Lord is with his Church, 'always to the end of time.' Fr James

At the start of a new calendar year, we give thanks to God for the blessings of the past year. At the same time, we look forward to the new calendar year with the seasons of Lent and Easter. During these weeks before the season of Lent, Ordinary Time, St Matthew's Gospel with his calling of the first disciples and his teaching from the Sermon of Mount will guide us to live in the abiding presence of the Lord. It is my hope that as the year unfolds we will form a few lectio divina groups that will meet on a weekly basis to pray and meditate on Sunday's gospel. Lectio divina is a way to learn to listen to God speaking to us in the depths of our heart. By way of encouragement, a small group already meets every Monday morning after the 9.30 mass.

Before we move into the Season of Lent, we plan to have our Parish Quiz. This an occasion to enjoy one another's company. During Lent our weekly Friday CAFOD lunches will continue, as will the Stations of the Cross before the Friday 1.00 p.m. mass. Last year it was encouraging to have many availing themselves of the Sacrament of Confession. We will also have our CAFOD Eastnor Walk during this holy season. Lent leads and prepares us for Easter with the climax of the Easter Vigil, "Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels! Exult, all creation around God's throne! Jesus Christ, our King, is risen! Sound the trumpet of salvation!"

During this sacred season let us ask ourselves how we live out our baptism in our busy lives. Baptism is not something that happens only to individuals, but it is a time of renewal for all the parish. This is a time when we re-dedicate ourselves to the task of being the body of Christ. This year we are privileged to have Archbishop Mark visiting us on 17th June to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. Let us support our candidates as they prepare for the reception of the sacrament. Some young parishioners are already preparing for the reception of the sacraments of confession and First Holy Communion.

August marks the feast day of St John Kemble with mass in the church on 22nd August, his feast day, as well as the pilgrimage to Welsh Newton where he is buried. There will, I hope, be other events to commemorate 'our martyr.' We have a number who are preparing to receive the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and communion. Let us keep them in our prayers over these coming months.

Tickets will be available for sale after weekend Masses on 24/24th January, 31st January/1st February and 7/8th February. Church Building Updates— we were hoping to begin refurbishment works on our hall toilets soon and also to finish the upgrading of our sound system in church, however, following discussions with the Historic Churches Commission we have had to put in further paperwork for planning permission to be approved for both projects. This has now been done and hopefully we will get the green light in a few weeks time. We will keep you updated as soon as we have any more news.

Reminder If you wish to have a Mass said for someone or a special intention, please fill in the brown envelope at the back of the church and hand into the office or to the priests. There is a suggested voluntary donation of £10.

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Welcome to new parishioners and visitors. Do introduce yourselves to the welcomers and come along after 10.00am Mass for coffee and cake.
