Dear All, As we enter the Fourth Sunday of Advent, our journey of waiting draws very close to its fulfilment. The Advent wreath candles are almost fully lit, the days are heavy with expectation, and the Church invites us to pause and reflect on how God chooses to come among us. This Sunday's Gospel turns our attention to Joseph—a quiet, faithful man who listens, trusts, and acts with courage. Through his obedience and compassion, God's plan unfolds in a way that is humble, unexpected, and deeply human. Advent reminds us that God often works, not through noise or spectacle, but through faithfulness, kindness, and a willingness to say "yes" even when the path ahead is unclear. Saint Matthew is concerned to keep in balance two truths about Jesus: that he is Son of David and that he is Son of God. Each is essential for understanding who Jesus is. And both Mary and Joseph play a role in accomplishing this harmonious grasp of the mystery. As we prepare for the celebration of Christ's birth, may these final days of Advent help us to make room in our hearts, our homes, and our community for Emmanuel—God with us—who comes to bring hope, peace, and new life to the world.

Fr John

THE O ANTIPHONS

In the days leading up to Christmas the Church offers us a series of beautiful antiphons or ancient chants. From 17 December to 23 December these antiphons are sung and read in Evening Prayer (Vespers) framing the Magnificat and as Gospel acclamations during Mass. These texts most probably originated in Rome before the 6th century. Each text in Latin begins with "O" hence they are known as 'The O Antiphons'. Each antiphon is a name of Christ, taken from one of his attributes such as root, light and key mentioned in Scripture and refers to the prophecy of Isaiah of the coming of the Messiah. In these antiphons we are reminded that we live between the two comings that give Advent its central theme: Jesus' birth and his Second Coming. Since the expulsion from Eden, we have cried out for salvation and justice. A way has opened up for us through Jesus' birth, his ministry on earth, and beyond death and resurrection, of his promise of a new kingdom. These beautiful antiphons are Advent's brightest jewels shining in the darkness of our night. They lead us to the light of Christ just as the Star led the wise men from the East to Bethlehem. Each title for Christ focuses on one aspect of his identity and is followed by further qualities flowing from that title. Each antiphon ends with a petition asking for a specific request from Christ appropriate to the title by which He was just invoked.

O Wisdom, you come forth from the mouth of the Most High. You fill the universe and hold all things together in a strong yet gentle manner. O come to teach us the way of truth.

O Adonai and leader of Israel, you appeared to Moses in a burning bush and you gave him the Law on Sinai. O come and save us with your mighty power.

O stock of Jesse, you stand as a signal for the nations; kings fall silent before you whom the peoples acclaim. O come to deliver us, and do not delay.

O key of David and sceptre of Israel, what you open no one else can close again; what you close no one can open. O come to lead the captive from prison; free those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death.

O Rising Sun, you are the splendour of eternal light and the sun of justice. O come and enlighten those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death.

O King whom all the peoples desire, you are the cornerstone which makes all one. O come and save man whom you made from clay.

O Emmanuel, you are our king and judge, the One whom the peoples await and their Saviour. O come and save us, Lord our God.
